

Trabajador/a de granja lechera con inglés y experiencia.

Looking for 1-2 people who can take care of the cowbarn, do other farm work and drive a tractor if you have a licence to do it. The working day in the cowbarn is divided into two parts with morning and evening work on the same day. The work is on weekdays and weekends.

Karasjohka Karasjok, Finnmark, Noruega

Job description/ Requirements

I am looking for a worker that can work independently, take responsibility and take care of the cowbarn. The worker will do the daily tasks in the cowbarn and stable. It will be the normal work, milking, feeding, cleaning, see if a cow is sick or in heat, contact the veterinarian and assist him, take care of the cow when it is giving birth and after and other things that might show up with the animals or machines. It will also be other work like fencing, tractor driving (If you have a licence to do it), cleaning, repairs and all other kind of work that exist on a farm. I would like a long-term worker that would be interested in working for a year or longer.

If you are going to drive a tractor you need to have a valid tractor driving Licence here in Norway. Tractor driving licence is a national driving licence and is not valid in other countries. Options that will you give you the right to drive tractor in Norway is:

- B acquired before 01.01.2005 will give a right to drive tractor in Norway for EU Citizens.
- CE for EU Citizens.

Language Norwegian or English.

YOU MUST HAVE DRIVING LICENSE CATEGORY B AND BRING YOUR OWN CAR TO GET TO AND FROM WORK

Type of work contract

From 178 NOK (15 €) pr hour.

Good possibilities for a permanent position.

Other information

The farmer (lady) can communicate in English, and she is assisting with housing nearby the farm.

Please get I touch again if you have any questions.

How to apply?

Send your CV and a short application letter in English, by e-mail to tegronvold@yahoo.com Include your CV, references and your phone number.

Copy to eures.nordicos@sepe.es

ASUNTO: COWBARN

Plazo: 20/12/2024