Rovero designs and manufactures high-quality plastic greenhouses, tunnels, fruit covers and shade halls at its factory in Raamsdonksveer. The company is looking for a production worker with experience in the plastic greenhouse sector. Tasks and responsibilities Main tasks in Production- Bending, drilling, sawing, milling and welding in our factory- Bundling and stacking steel parts- Random checks of manufactured goods- Assisting with loading or unloading transport Main tasks in greenhouse construction- Laying foundations (digging, pouring concrete)- Measuring and installing the substructure- Further construction of the steel greenhouse structure- Tensioning and adjusting the foil on top of the greenhouse Both parts of the job involve the so-called Roll-Air greenhouse from Rovero. This is a type of foil greenhouse that can be partially opened by motor. For the correct construction, it is important that the candidate can read the construction drawings and also knows how the manufactured steel parts should be constructed. NB. Electrical work is outsourced to third parties, so no experience is required in this area, although an affinity with it is of course an advantage.

REQUISITOS

Minimum MBO level or equivalent (Educación secundaria) Some knowledge of English, at least spoken- Experience in foil greenhouse construction- Willingness to perform a variety of tasks as described above. The idea behind this is that employees have sufficient variety and challenge in their work, both internally in the factory and externally at our customers' sites. - In possession of a driving licence B or a driving licence that can be converted to B in the Netherlands

CONDICIONES DEL PUESTO:

Starting with a 7-month contract, including a 1-month probationary period. If both parties are enthusiastic, this will immediately be followed by a permanent contract- Salary in accordance with the Metal and Technology Collective Labour Agreement, based on experience and education.- Day shifts; shift work is not currently applicable at our company.- The employer will provide accommodation and will draw up a separate agreement with the employee for this, e.g. in the area of joint tenancy.- Approximately 28 days of leave per year based on a 40-hour working week- Travel car allowance of €0.23 per km Salario 2600 Euros brutos.
