

Arbeitsmarktservice
Österreich

We're an international full-service provider in the fields of structural engineering, civil engineering, prefabricated-, underground-, pipeline-, steel- and steel installation construction as well as timber construction.

We are looking for a Skilled worker structural engineering (m/f/d)

Job description

- Execution of crafts, focus on housing and industrial construction
- Setting up the construction sites
- Molding, reinforcing, pouring concrete, of for example slabs and walls
- Economical and professional execution of construction sites and work processes
- Implementation of the material and logistic concept to ensure a timely construction process

Skills

- Successfully completed apprenticeship in the construction industry (structural engineer/ concrete builder)
- Relevant experience as a skilled worker is an advantage
- Manual skills as well as technical interest
- Independent and committed work style
- Joy of working outdoors
- Willingness to travel within / all over Austria
- Good knowledge of German (at least B1)
- Driving license B is mandatory

Arbeitsmarktservice
Österreich

Working hours and place of work

- 39 working hours per week
- Construction Sites mainly in Upper Austria

Other information

- EU nationality is a must. Specify if you are a European national in your CV.
- Salary: 41.622 gross salary per year + daily allowance
- We will help you finding suitable accommodation.

Applications

Interested? Then send your CV and cover letter in English and in Europass-format to: eures.oberoesterreich@ams.at (to the attention of EURES adviser Petra Rosenstingl and as mail subject: 'Structural Eng 7') before the 31st October 2023.