Hey Fjords. Stavanger, Noruega.

Plazo: 1/2/2025

Hey Fjords is a vibrant and adventurous tour company based in Stavanger, Norway, specializing in RIB (Rigid Inflatable Boat) tours. We offer unforgettable experiences that showcase the stunning beauty of Norway's iconic fjords, including the famous Preikestolen (Pulpit Rock). Our passion is to provide visitors with thrilling, high-speed adventures through Norway's scenic waterways, while also sharing the rich maritime history and natural wonders of the region. We are committed to delivering top-notch customer service and creating memorable experiences for all our guests, whether they are thrill-seekers or nature enthusiasts. Our team is driven by a love for the outdoors and a desire to introduce others to the unique and awe-inspiring landscapes of the Norwegian fjords. At Hey Fjords, every day is an opportunity for adventure!

Job description

Embark on an exhilarating journey as a skipper with Hey Fjords! As the captain of our RIB (Rigid Inflatable Boat) tours, you'll take guests on thrilling, high-speed adventures through the breathtaking Norwegian fjords, with Preikestolen (Pulpit Rock) as a key highlight. Not only will you navigate these scenic routes, but you'll also ensure that each guest enjoys the raw beauty of Norway's majestic landscapes in complete safety and comfort. This role is perfect for someone who thrives in dynamic environments, enjoys sharing local stories, and loves creating memorable experiences.

Your day will involve skippering the boat, maintaining top-tier equipment, handling bookings, and engaging with customers from all over the world. Every trip is an opportunity to promote Norwegian nature and maritime heritage, providing top-notch service while embracing the adventure that each day brings. From May to October, you'll lead exciting tours that showcase Stavanger's stunning coastal geography. Plus, you'll be a vital part of our growth, promoting our services and ensuring smooth operations.

Skills:

- Relevant maritime certificates (VHF course, D5L Certificate)
- Fluent in Norwegian or English
- Experience in customer service and/or travel industry
- Previous experience as a skipper or tour guide preferred

Work conditions

- Temporary (May-October)
- Flexible, Seasonal shifts
- Salary: Negotiable (dependent on experience)
