

WELCOME TO BISTRO SÅGEN- SVARTSÖ ISLAND, STOCKHOLM!

WE ARE LOOKING FOR A BARTENDER!

About us

Our restaurant, "Bistro Sågen", is a friendly and fun place with a big outdoor seating. We also have restaurant room that is built inside of an old sawmill. Bistro Sågen is located on the island, Svartsö, in Stockholm Archipelago.

We have a family atmosphere where the guests are our focus, and the food is well prepared and made from local ingredients. In the bar we serve classic drinks in a relaxed atmosphere. We also grow our own vegetables and raise our own livestock. In our big kitchen we work all year round with our own products such as sausages, pickled vegetables and smoked meat.

To the next summer, we are looking for a Bartender to join our team!

Tasks and requirements

We are looking for you a dedicated Bartender who can give our guests the drink of their lives. As a Bartender we expect you to have a vocational training, at least two years' experience and can communicate in English. To the right candidate we offer a stimulating position where you can thrive as a professional and as a person. You also get this unique opportunity to work on the beautiful archipelago and discover its rareness.

Type of contract: seasonal contract, June 26th – August 20th

Working hours: fulltime, 40 hours a week

Salary: individual salary based on the Swedish Collective Agreements, 140 SEK-150 SEK/hour, depending on experience. In addition to the salary, you will also get paid for extra and inconvenience hours.

Accommodation: we can offer housing, but at your own expense.

How to apply: send a CV in English to cilla@oratt.se with copy to eures.nordicos@sepe.es